

IAASB Appointment

October 11th, 2011, Dublin

Brendan Murtagh
Assurance Partner
LHM Casey McGrath

Brendan Murtagh who leads the Assurance function of the firm has been appointed to the 18 person Board of the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board, based in New York, USA, for a three year term starting on 1 January 2012.

The International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB) is an independent standard-setting body that develops auditing and assurance standards and guidance for use by all professional accountants under a shared standard-setting process involving the Public Interest.

The objective of the IAASB is to serve the public interest by setting, independently and under its own authority, high-quality standards dealing with auditing, review, other assurance, quality control, and related services, and by facilitating the convergence of national and international standards. This objective contributes to enhanced quality and consistency of practice in these areas throughout the world, and strengthened public confidence in financial reporting.
